This is the first transaction since the end of March 2020 with a wide participation from institutional investors, and it will surely serve as reference for subsequent issuers. This outcome clearly demonstrates investor confidence in our Bank's franchise and solid financial profile. Likewise, we are deeply satisfied to have become a recurrent issuer in this market, as Banco de México is one of our founding shareholders. The proceeds from this new issuance will be dedicated to support our clients throughout the Region and especially in the Mexican market. Finally, we would like to thank both bookrunners for a very professional and seamless execution".
