

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bladex, Citi and Mizuho co-lead successful syndication of a US$135.5 million, Dual Tranche, Senior Unsecured Syndicated Term Loan Facility for Global Bank Corporation (Panama)

Panama City, Republic of Panama, June 22, 2016 - Banco Latinoamericano de Comercio Exterior, S.A. ("Bladex", NYSE: BLX), Citibank N.A. ("Citi", NYSE: C) and Mizuho Bank Ltd. ("Mizuho", NYSE: MFG) announced today the recent closing of a US$135.5 million, 2-year and 3-year dual-tranche senior unsecured syndicated Facility for Global Bank Corporation ("Global Bank").

Established in Panama in 1994, Global Bank is the second largest Panamanian-owned bank in terms of assets. The bank is rated BBB-, with a stable outlook, from both S&P and Fitch, and Ba1, with a stable outlook, by Moody's.

Bladex, Citi and Mizuho acted together as Joint Lead Arrangers and Bookrunners in the Facility.

The transaction, which attracted several financial institutions from Japan, Taiwan, the United States of America, and Latin America, was upsized to US$135.5 million from an original amount of US$104 million due to strong investor demand.

Jorge Vallarino, Chief Financial Officer of Global Bank stated: "We are extremely pleased to have closed this important facility, led by strong financial partners like Bladex, Citi and Mizuho. While this was not the first international syndicated loan done by Global Bank, it allowed the bank to strengthen some of its existing lending relationships and, moreover, to add new banking relationships—particularly from Asia, and further diversify its funding sources."

Bladex is a multinational bank originally established in 1976 by the central banks of Latin-American and Caribbean countries to promote foreign trade finance and economic integration in the Region. The Bank, headquartered in Panama, operates throughout the Region with offices in Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Mexico, Peru, and the United States of America, to support the expansion and servicing of its client base, which includes financial institutions and corporations.

Bladex is listed on the NYSE in the United States of America (NYSE: BLX), since 1992, and its shareholders include central banks, state-owned banks and entities representing 23 Latin American countries, as well as commercial banks and financial institutions, institutional and retail investors through its public listing.
